

CRABTREE FARMS INTERNSHIPS

Crabtree Farms is a dynamic non-profit organic farm located 5 minutes from downtown Chattanooga. Crabtree Farms' mission is to promote research and educational opportunities in sustainable agriculture to the Chattanooga community.

Crabtree offers fun and educational internship opportunities to college students who are interested in learning about organic farming techniques or administration for non-profit organizations.

Internships can be customized to meet the student's interest or the internship's requirements.

The Urban Farming Internship focuses on ecology, sustainable agriculture, botany and biology. The intern will learn the basic principles of organic farming that are useful for maintaining sustainable food production processes and a healthy environment.

The Non-Profit Administration Internship focuses on special projects in public relations, journalism and community-building. The intern will be required to apply their communication and writing skills in promoting the goals and activities of Crabtree Farms.

The farm is located near downtown Chattanooga off of Rossville Blvd. and East 30th street. If you are interested in gaining some hands-on experience at Crabtree Farms, please visit www.crabtreefarms.org for an application or call: (423) 493-9155 x.11.
